

The Climate Capital Network

India's first Network for capital allocators across the breadth of climate

Why a Network

We need more capital to flow to more innovations, faster

Within a growing ecosystem of capital allocators, it's difficult to find the right funding partner

Identify shared ground and common goals within seemingly disparate mandates

A common platform to share insights, learnings, pipeline and build collaborations

Network Overview

- Seeded by Green Artha, a climate investment & innovation firm
- Network by climate capital professionals for climate capital professionals
- Designed to defragment the sector to overcome gaps of access awareness & alignment
- Free membership to institutional and other vetted investors to ensure breadth, depth and inclusivity

Network Benefits

Increasing awareness of investors in the sector, what they do and how they operate

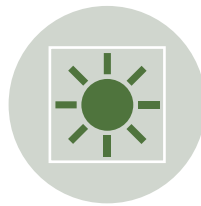

Increasing engagement with other funders in a non-transactional environment

Enabling better deal flow, curated and early pipeline, deal syndication and/or follow-on investment

Facilitating due diligence and access to sector expertise/shared learnings

Events, investment showcases, sector deep dives, masterclasses

Facilitating blended capital and a continuum of capital to increase the likelihood of investment success

Sample Events

Thesis deep dive – Focusing on ocean-bound plastics

What do Blended Finance models look like in practice?
